

Colorful Chairs

Four or more players. Age range: 4-10

Items needed: 3 chairs, 3 pieces of colored construction paper (or white paper) and a pencil (or pen)

Before You Start:

1. Designate a "Color Caller" for the start of the game. The "Color Caller" will change each round
2. Use 3 pieces of colored construction paper or write the names of 3 colors (For example: Red, Blue, Green) on pieces of white paper.
3. Place 3 chairs next to each other in a row. Put or tape 1 piece of paper on each of the side-by-side chairs.

To Play:

1. Players walk around the chairs until the "Color Caller" calls out 2 of the colors.
2. Players must race to sit in the chairs of the 2 colors called out.
3. The player left standing or sitting on the chair of the third color switches places with the "Color Caller."
4. The 2 players in the correct chairs each get a point.
5. The first player to get 10 points wins.

Game Variations:

- Skip, jog, hop on one foot or bunny hop around the chairs while waiting for the colors to be called.

NOTE: If you live in an apartment and have people living below you, please be courteous to them when playing the game.
